

VIRTUAL PROJECT MANAGEMENT & LEADERSHIP

A 4-week intensive interactive online course, partly video-led with tools and techniques to run virtual project management

Virtual leadership is a very complex discipline because, as a project manager, you need to balance distance, time zones, culture and systems.

This highly rated course in virtual project management and leadership, provides the essentials of project management and virtual leadership tools for participants to navigate and balance three dynamics in your virtual team – task, people and change.

This course prepares participants to lead and balance task, people and change in a global work environment, lead collaborative work teams with intelligence, and operate, as a virtual collaborative project manager.
